Improving Range Cattle.

From the Texas Live Stock Journal.

There will be no "die-up" among the cattle this winter in Texas. They will go into the winter in fine condition, and it is safe to calculate that at least 90 per cent will come out of it with their lives. It has got to be an old, old and often repeated story, but, nevertheless, a very true one, that it pays to improve live stock and raise good animals. A thoroughbred bull costs comparatively little. He will serve from twenty to forty cows, and do good service for at least five years. His offspring at yearlings are worth $2 per head more, and at two-year-olds $4 per head more, and at maturity $10 per head more than those of the scrub bull. The arguments in favor of better stock of all kinds are too numerous and self-evident and too well known to all to admit of a repeating here. It is therefore the intention of the Journal at this particular time to call the readers to think about it, and act as their interests unmistakably demands.

Unusual excitement was created in Cincinnati the other day, over a discovery made by divers who are preparing to sink a caisson for the new bridge. In digging, the men discovered the hull of a steamboat sunk over forty years ago and sought for a long time, but without success. At the time named the steamer Moselle, with 200 emigrants who had come aboard at Pittsburgh for Southern ports, sank somewhere in the neighborhood mentioned. The stream was high and many lives were lost. In the safe on board was a large sum of money, never recovered. The wreck is fourteen feet under ground. When the news of the find became known thousands flocked to the scene and old river men recalled the wreck. The divers fastened ropes and chains to the hull and tomorrow it will be pulled out. The divers say the wreck is in good preservation and they judge that most of the cabin is gone, but from the cabin floor down it is all right. Dead bodies and the safe will be sought for.

A member of congress is responsible for the well-known phrase "Acknowledged the corn." In 1828 Alexander Stewart said in a speech that Ohio, Kentucky, and Indiana sent their haystacks, cornfields and fodder to New York and Philadelphia for sale. Wickliffe, another member, called him to order, declaring that those States did not send their haystacks and cornfields to the eastern cities for sale. "Well, what do you send?" asked Stewart. "Why, horses, mules, cattle, and hogs." "Well, what makes your horses, mules, cattle, and hogs?" queried Stewart. "You feed $100 worth of hay to a horse. In doing that you just animate your haystack and get on top of it and ride off to market. How much corn does it take to fatten a hog, Mr. Wickliffe?" "Thirty-three bushels," replied the man from Kentucky. "Then you just put thirty-three bushels of corn in the shape of a hog and walk him off to market," said Stewart. At this point in the debate Wickliffe sprang to his feet and exclaimed very loudly, "Mr. Speaker! Mr. Speaker! I acknowledge the corn." The incident caused quite a laugh among the members and was never forgotten.

THE MARKETS.

NEW YORK, November 5.—The stock market today was reactionary in its nature. The bears soon got to work in the morning. The selling was heavy and attended by considerable excitement, the stock dropping 4 per cent to 67 in the first half hour. Feeble rallies took place in the stock room time to time during the day, but late in the day, its prices touched 64 1/2 a loss of 6 1/2 per cent, while at the close it only reached 66 per cent. In railroads, a sudden and pronounced likeness was developed in Vanderbilt and the list could not withstand such influence. Final changes are, with few exceptions, material losses. New York Central is down 2 1/2 per cent, Lake Shore 2 per cent, Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific, each 1 1/2 per cent and others, fractional amounts.

The following were the closing quotations:

HOFF OF TUCSON

BELOW IS A CUT OF THE TERRITORIAL RENOWNED CHARLES F. HOFF, COMMONLY known as HOFF, OF TUCSON. Mr. Hoff is Manufacturer's Agent and Merchandise Broker, with headquarters at Tucson. He is the gentleman that has agitated the windmill question so much, the results of which are being seen all over the Territory, and which is turning the barren deserts into blooming gardens.

THE AERMOTOR WINDMILL

Shows an increase of 35 per cent in power over all other mills. The wheel is entirely of STEEL.

Run, Rain or Storm therefore have no effect on the same.

It is sold with or without TILTING TOWERS. FIXED TOWERS are the cheapest, but the TILTING TOWER is the most convenient; same brings the wheel down to the ground for oiling.

Think of it: the wheel comes down to you.

The AERMOTORS have from 4 to 16-inch strokes. Three revolutions of the wheel to one stroke of the pump allows it to start up easier under a heavy load, and runs when other wheels are idle, not being "quite" sufficient wind to run other mills. The wheel itself, being so LIGHT, runs so much faster when started, and thus gains more in speed than it loses in the stroke. But these are only a few reasons why the AERMOTOR is superior in Power, Construction and Durability to all other wind-motors. However, so far as the power of the wheel is concerned, the greatest gain in power is due to the structure of the wheel itself. To specify ALL the reasons for this would be too tedious. Suffice it to say that this claim is based on numerous dynamometric tests on more than sixty different wheels, and that the AERMOTOR has been submitted to long and applied practical tests, in conjunction with the leading wind-motors of the country, and it has been proven by actual trial and measurement that the 8-foot STEEL AERMOTOR will pump more water in the same time, in any kind of wind, and will do the same work in lighter wind than the best of 16-foot wooden wheels made. The AERMOTOR WIND ENGINE, without exaggeration, is the greatest invention of the nineteenth century, and every home in Arizona should have one, as a home without a windmill is like a library without books, a home without a soul.
